Updates & Reminders - Faculty

Be a hero; Chair a Doctoral Exam!

For Full and Associate Professors:

Among the most critical elements of any doctoral exam, from the perspective of those who coordinate these complexities, is the search for a strong Chair. Yet this search serves as a perennial challenge to the Doctoral Examinations team. Often, 10 invitations are sent before confirming 1 chair for an upcoming exam.

If you would like to contribute your time and wisdom to UBC's doctoral exams, please view the details here:
